The Conference 2022

The 2022 conference was a hit at this year's event, welcoming hundreds of guests as leading experts took to the stage to impart their knowledge and insights into the latest food & hospitality trends. With topics ranging from food production and manufacturing, wellness and healthy eating, opportunities, sustainability, industry regulations and standards, there was plenty to see

The results are in for Kenyan Food, Drink & Hospitality Event 2022!!

The statistics from this year's post-show report were impressive highlighting key milestones from the exhibitor and visitor profiles to the wide products range making this show the most interactive with huge potential. The exhibitions and conference sessions within the event were a clear show that the food, beverage & hospitality sectors are diversifying and growing.

23-25 MARCH 2022

“The Event was extremely good.. Presentations by suppliers were excellent. Personally I learnt a lot and increase my portfolio in terms of product knowledge and networking with Professionals across all sectors. Vincent Odhiambo Oyugi
